Revenue in June reached NT$3,160 million or 2.69% up from last month, but down 7.25% from June in 2007. Annual accumulated revenue from Jan. through June in 2008 totaled NT$ 19,082 million, down 1.88% from the same period in 2007.

Digital Consumer Business

Sales of Digital Consumer business composed 43.50% of total revenues. Some new product orders of May delayed shipments to June, leading to 4.75% sales increase in June than from last month. Because of the traditional low season in 2nd quarter, coupled with the impact from US sub prime mortgages and continuous adjustment in product lines, the annual accumulated revenue was down 3.34% YoY.

Wire and Cable

Sales in Wire and Cable represented 21.96% of the total sales. Wire and Cable business tends to grow stably. Revenue in June was slightly down 2.81% MoM and 4.81% YoY respectively. The annual accumulated revenue was up 0.42% from the same period in 2007.

Industrial Appliance

Industrial Appliance was about 23.09% of the total sales. The average prices increased in industrial market this year. Moreover, some customers placed additional orders in response to the rising copper and oil prices and expected inflation. Hence, sales climbed 10.74% from last month, or up to 17.67% from June, 2007. The annual accumulated revenue was up 5.76% from the same period a year ago.

Home Appliance

Home Appliance accounted for 11.38% of the revenue. As impacted by the slow down economy, some customers reduced orders to adjust inventory volume. Meanwhile, the compressor manufacture and sales were moved to China and sales were recorded under the subsidiary. Moreover, the ramping of medium and big sized refrigerators in Vietnam factory was not as smooth as expected as to affect the sales in Taiwan. As a result, revenue was down 7.88% MoM and 36.04% YoY respectively. However, with the improving production ramping in Vietnam and the coming peak season, sales in Home Appliance is expected to grow. The annual accumulated revenue declined 10.20% YoY.
