Revenue in May reached NT$2,294 million. It was increased by 2.50% from last month, but down by 25.44% from the same period in 2008.

Digital Consumer Business

Sales of Digital Consumer business composed 39.77% of total revenue in May. May revenue was NT$912 million, down by 30.47% from the same period last year, resulting from ASP decline and the orders were not as expected in an unfavorable economy. To further improve the revenue and profit growth, BU will keep on better management in inventory and sales expansion, given the uncertain global consumer market.

Home Appliance

Home Appliance accounted for 14.58% of the revenues. May revenue reached NT$335 million. Domestic consumer market was impacted in this economy downturn, leading to the slow inventory liquidation in channels, revenue of this month down by 29.40% from the same period last year. However, with the coming of summer season, promotions and related sales programs, sales in May was up by 21.06% from last month. By the coming peak season of air conditioners, accompanied by marketing promotions, revenue is expected to climb up to offset the decrease in the first half year.

Industrial Appliance

Industrial Appliance was about 25.72% of the total sales. May revenue totaled NT$590 million, down by 10.42% from the same period last year. Because some transformer orders were affected by delayed shipments, sales reduced by 1.31% from the last month. The sales could be expected rising up from the late 2nd quarter.

Wire and Cable

Sales in Wire and Cable represented 19.93% of the total sales. May revenue totaled NT$457 million. Wire and Cable business tends to grow stably. Though shipments continued to grow, the sales decline suffered from continuous drop in the copper price over 43.69% since November in 2008. Revenue in May was up 4.78% MoM, but down 35.96% YoY. To avoid the violated fluctuation of the copper price, we are now endeavoring to get the long term contracts positively to ensure the stable order price and quantity.
