Revenue in June reached NT$2,660 million. It was increased by 15.94% from last month and down by 15.82% from the same period in 2008.

Digital Consumer Business

Sales of Digital Consumer business composed 40.32% of total revenue in June. June revenue was NT$1,072 million, though it was increased by 17.54% from last month, however, it still decreased 21.99% from the same period last year, mainly resulting from ASP decline and the orders were not as expected in the traditional low season in Q2. In addition to implementing cost down strategy to enhance competitiveness, development of new business and customers are strongly explored.

Home Appliance

Home Appliance accounted for 14.21% of the revenues. June revenue reached NT$378 million. With the coming of peak season of air conditioners, along with proactive promotion strategy, sales in June rose by 12.99% from last month, and increased 4.51% from the same period last year. To catch the growth potential in the peak season, we strive to maintain the stable supplies of products. Moreover, we launched a series of energy-saving projects and products to capture the market opportunities.

Industrial Appliance

Industrial Appliance was about 26.67% of the total sales. June revenue totaled NT$709 million, which was up by 20.23% from May. However, due to the impact from reduction in domestic projects, sales declined by 2.75% from the same period last year, given the domestic market demand was down by 50% from last year. With the economic uncertainty, we will focus on better operation management to shelter stable revenues and earnings.

Wire and Cable

Sales in Wire and Cable represented 18.80% of the total sales. June revenue totaled NT$500 million. Wire and Cable business tends to grow stably. Sales in June increased 9.36% from last month. However, sales suffered from continuous drops in copper prices over 35.91% from same period last year. Revenue decreased 27.94% from the same period last year.
